

Physical Development

Gymnastics - balancing and jumping safely off benches

Dance - under the sea movement

Use a pen or pencil with good control for writing, colouring and drawing

Use scissors to cut zig zag and curved lines.

Under the sea

EYFS Spring Term 2024

Communication and Language

Share quality texts.

Discussing the books we read and answering 'who, when, how, where' questions.

Talking about their own experiences - use correct pronouns he/she and use past tense went/got.

Personal and Social Development

Have weekly circle times.

Special person of the week.

Begin to resolve conflicts and understand how others may feel.

Expressive Art and Design

Explore the artist Henri Matisse - 'The snail'

Explore the artists Kandinsky - circle pictures

Use marbling inks for Easter Cards

To explore the sounds instruments make

Understanding the World

Explore the changes in seasons

Learn about the festivals Ramadan, Holi, Chinese New Year and Easter.

Investigate floating, sinking, melting and freezing.

Use the computers in the suite
Scientist: David Attenborough.

Literacy

Read books linked to our Under the Sea topic.

Write labels, simple captions and sentences.

Write about an under sea creature

Talk for Writing - Pancake writing

Continue to form all single sounds using the correct letter formation

Segment and blend cvc words.

Be able to read some of the red words taught.

To suggest how a story might end.

Continue daily Read Write Inc lessons.

Mathematics

Number of the week - 11-20.

Counting forwards and backwards.

Composition of numbers to 10.

Simple addition and subtraction using equipment.

Naming odd and even numbers.

Use the language of capacity - full, empty, half full

Comparing the length of fish.

Positional language - on top of, under, next to.

Name and describe 2D shapes.

Practise writing numbers.