

Physical Development

Gymnastics - balancing and jumping safely off benches

Dance - space movements

Use a pen or pencil with good control for writing, colouring and drawing

Use scissors to cut zig zag and curved lines

Yoga

Amazing Adventures

EYFS Spring 2025

Understanding the World

Explore the changes in seasons

Learn about the festivals Ramadan, Holi, Chinese New Year and Easter.

Investigate freezing and melting

Use the computers in the suite

Use maps and globes to look at land and sea

Scientist: Prof Brian Cox & Tim Peake

Communication and Language

Share high quality texts

Discuss the books we read and answer 'who, when, how, where' questions.

Talking about their own experiences - use correct pronouns he/she and use past tense went/got.

Expressive Art and Design

Make flags, patterned pants, eye patches, dinosaurs, settings for our dinosaurs and Chinese New Year dragons

Explore the artist Peter Thorpe and Oliver Jeffers

Use marbling inks for Easter Cards

To explore the sounds instruments make

Mathematics

Number of the week - 11-20

Counting forwards and backwards from different numbers

Understand the composition of numbers to 10

Complete addition and subtraction calculations using equipment to 10

Say the number 1 more, 1 less

Name odd and even numbers

Use the language of capacity - full, empty, half full

Measure ingredients using scales (and make biscuits!)

Use positional language - on top of, under, next to

Literacy

Read books linked to our topic

Write labels, simple captions and sentences

Write about dinosaurs and pirates

Talk for Writing - Pancake writing

Continue to form all single sounds using the correct letter formation

Segment and blend cvc words to read and write

Continue to read the red words taught

Suggest how a story might end

Continue daily Read Write Inc lessons

Personal and Social Development

Have weekly circle times

Special person of the week

Begin to resolve conflicts and understand how others may feel

Talk about changes and set goals